Wheat prices

2661. SHRI B.K. HARIPRASAD: Will the Minister of CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether domestic wheat prices are likely to flare up in line with soaring' wheat prices in global markets;

(b) whether India entered the world wheat market for contracting its imports at a time when global wheat prices in US hit a high for the last decade; and

(c) whether country has to wait till winter 2007 for enough Australian wheat to be made available for export after its harvest at stabilised prices?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI TASLIMUDDIN): (a) The import of wheat is for Central Pool. Since the procurement fell short by about 40 lakh tonnes it was decided by the Government to import wheat in order to ensure food security of the country and cater to the requirements of Targeted Public Distribution System (TPDS), Welfare Schemes etc.

Even though the international prices of wheat have gone up substantially the domestic prices have not increased. Retail prices have remained steady at Rs. 12 per Kg. in Delhi for the last six months. The whole sale price which was Rs. 1030 per Quintal six month back was Rs. 1025 per Quintal on 15.8.2007. The level of prices of commodities is determined largely by a variety of factors operating on the demand and supply side. These include domestic production, arrivals in the market,
